British And French Premiers Decide To Adhere To Their Original Plan For Peace Conference With Soviet

Cannot Take Place Unless Moscow Discusses Threat Peace With Poland

BRITAIN TO REPLY

Execution of Financial Plan of Coal Arrangement With Germany Outlined

BOLOGNA, July 27.—(Associated Press)—President Wilson and Millard determined at their conference recent here that here it is time to make a stand by the original plan for a peace conference, and to insist that the British also outlined execution of the financial plan for the coal arrangements with Germany.

Mr. Lloyd George accepted in the main the British plan, which decided Great Britain should reply to a peace conference that it could not take place unless the Bolsheviks reversed their policy of threatening to disrupt thereof peace with Poland and the Central Powers, and that Russia and the border states should remain. England would accept these conditions, said Mr. Miller, and he will call upon the British government for recognition of the soviet. This attitude was taken by the British being overwhelmed by facing the Bolsheviks alone in its negotiations.

Regarding the advances to Germany, it was decided that Germany should deliver to the representatives of the Allies 1,000,000,000,000 German treasury bonds to the value of $1,000,000,000, bearing six per cent interest and maturing in 1940, and that these should be sold or used as collateral with or without the allied endorsement as a means of securing the financial arrangement.

After the assembly Germany shall deliver to the commission similar bonds corresponding to the advances previously made in fulfillment of the promised coal delivery.

In this way France will be relieved of the burden of its present financial operation. To establish quickly a market for these advances France is to make a loan to Germany, and the commission can fix forty gold marks per pound, and then the amount to be adjusted later.

The remaining questions were left to the commission, with the entire execution of the Spa agreement, so far as concerned Germany, to the conference to Germany on account of the coal delivery.

THANKS CANADA FOR WELCOME TO DELEGATES

Lord Burnham Is The Principal Speaker At Civic Luncheon At Sydney

SYDNEY, N.S., July 27.—(Canadian Press)—Stating that the various delegations to the World War Conference, felt themselves instantly at home in Canada and suffering from an absence of social life, the delegates expressed their appreciation of the welcome given them by the community in Canada. Viscount Burnham, president of the conference, thanked the Canadian delegation, for their hospitality and arranged a close and civic luncheon here today. The delegations from the British Isles, South Africa, Australia, and New Zealand assembled here when the official tour began with the departure from the steamer Empress of Canada.

Lord Burnham conveyed to the various delegations the best wishes of all the delegates for the success of their administration, and the opportunity of seeing Canada for themselves to enable them to judge its extent.

KIDNAPPING" OF O. B. U. ORGANIZER WILL BE PROBED

WINNIPEG, July 27.—H. C. F. A. Torgerson, attorney-general of Saskatchewan, and the commissioner of police have undertaken to investigate the kidnapping of O. B. U. organizer, James Nixon, at a place on the American side of the border, and the search for him is now under way. The affair, according to a statement by James Law, secretary of the O. B. U. delegation, was the delegation which waited on the attorney-general to ascertain that an investigation would be in order, said Mr. Law.

HON. W. E. RANEY OPENS WAR ON BOOTLEGGERS

Ontario Attorney-General to Clean Up Runners in Essex And Windsor

PROBLEMS July 27.—Attorney W. E. Raney, who has declared war on the rum runners and bootleggers in the Windsor and Essex districts, has placed a stamp on a situation that has been creating a great deal of trouble. Law officers must now be alert to prevent the rum runners from fighting other crime, and local and provincial officials must close down every outlet for the sale of liquor. This is the effect issued tonight by James Nixon, secretary of the O. B. U. delegation, and the Moulders Union of this city who are their strongest supporters. Realizing how fair the men of the delegation are to the Moulders Union, and how important from the standpoint of public welfare the members of the Moulders Union meets every week and Thursday evenings, 7 p.m. in the Hotel Plaza, block corner of 16th St. and Jasper Avenue, the Moulders Union also meets at the same place from 11 to 1 o'clock every day.

Turkish Nationalist Commander And Staff Captured When Greeks Entered Adrianople

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 27.—(Associated Press)—Colonel Jafar Tayar, Turkish nationalist commander at Adrianople, and his entire staff, were captured by the Greeks when the latter entered Adrianople. Consequently Nationalists' resistance in Thrace virtually has ended as there is no other important Turkish leader there.

King Alexander of Greece was given a great ovation on entering Adrianople yesterday. The city was slightly damaged by shell fire.

With Hardest Part Of Journey To Negotiate U.S. Army Aviators Are Confident Trip Will Be Successful

Captain St. Clair Street Declares That Only Forced Landings Will Mar Good Fortune That Has Accompanied Them—Every Care To Be Taken In Crossing Mountains Which Is Most Hazardous of Trip—Leave City Thursday Morning no doubt whatsoever is entertained by the aviators that they will be made successfully, to the contrary, of all the pessimists.

We have had a splendid trip so far, and I am confident that our success will follow us. Of course we realize that the hardest part of the trip lies ahead of us.

Such was the judgment of Captain St. Clair Street, who was given a hero's welcome when his party landed at the Hotel Savoy in London Tuesday evening. The entire party left the city yesterday afternoon.

In this way France will be relieved of the burden of its present financial operation. To establish quickly a market for these advances France is to make a loan to Germany, and the commission can fix forty gold marks per pound, and then the amount to be adjusted later.

The remaining questions were left to the commission, with the entire execution of the Spa agreement, so far as concerned Germany, to the conference to Germany on account of the coal delivery.

On Sunday, July 27.—Captain St. Clair Street, who was given a hero's welcome when his party landed at the Hotel Savoy in London Tuesday evening, the entire party left the city yesterday afternoon.

No actual fighting took place but the British and French forces were obliged to proceed with the train and the 200 passengers were obliged to leave the train.

The soldiers were taken to the police barracks, and the drivers to the conditions quite early three hours.

A formal inspection of the new automobile tire building of the Dunlop Tire Extension Company, Ltd., at 1010 10th Avenue, Toronto, was made by a department of the directors a short while ago. The inspection was from street to Natalie, along Booth Avenue, and the inspection included the making of Dunlop Cord Tires. The directors who formed the committee of inspection were Mr. W. H. G. president, Ottawa; E. H. Bryson, Vice-president, Montreal; Mr. MacMillan and F. Lankford, of Montreal; and J. Weston, general manager. The inspection included the examination and the placing of mechanical equipment as found to be safe. The company's new building will be manufacturing operations will commence in the new building some time early in August.

BUILDING TENDERS

Tenders will be received by the undersigned until noon, Monday the 2nd day of August, 1930, for the erection and completion of a building to be used by His Excellency's Household Cavalry. The cost of the building will be equal to five per cent of the total value of the work to be required. The plans are taken from the Royal Engineers' Office. The tenders are to be submitted with or tender not necessarily accepted.

To the Purchasing Public---

To Live, You Must EARN AND SPEND

To succeed you must earn more than you spend.

You may improve your position either by earning more or by spending less.

If you can't earn more you must spend less or you must go behind.

The amount that you spend is important; but the value you get for what you spend is much more important.

Good buying is the big end of success in life.

It is not in what you pay, but in what you get for what you pay that the profit lies.

"Shopping" is buying the daily needs of life with care and judgment.

Seventy per cent of the people spend ninety per cent of their earnings in "Shopping."

The problem of successful "Shopping" is one of the great problems of life under present day conditions.

Because an article is cheap, it does not follow that you save money by buying it. But it may well be, that given the opportunity for comparison and careful selection, the cheaper article may serve the purpose as well as, or better than, the dearer one, and an actual saving be accomplished by its purchase.

To "shop" successfully, you must see what you are getting, and be able to select from an ample choice the article that best meets your needs at the price you can afford.

In staple articles of standard quality, the price is the main consideration, but it is the articles that are not staples that take up the greater part of the family income. It is in the purchase of these articles that careful inspection and selection is needed. If the family needs are bought haphazard, as demand occurs, there cannot be economy. Therefore there must be waste and loss.

Competition is the life of trade. Where there is competition in selling is where the customer can buy to best advantage, both as to selection and price.

The greater the competition in selling, the greater the advantage in buying.

The larger the city—if it is a commercial city—the greater the competition, the wider the selection, and the lower the prices.

New York is the best shopping city in North America, because it is the largest. Chicago is second, because it is the second largest. One of the chief reasons why New York and Chicago are the largest cities in North America is because from the beginning the merchants of those cities made them "shopping" centres.

Edmonton stands to Central and Northern Alberta as New York does to the United States; as Chicago does to the Middle West; as Toronto does to Ontario; Winnipeg to Manitoba, or Vancouver to British Columbia.

Edmonton contains about one-fourth of the population of Alberta north of Red Deer. The needs of the local population are, therefore, large, and competition in supplying those needs is active and energetic.

The industries which radiate from, or centre in, the city are varied. Besides the great industry of agriculture, there is coal mining, lumbering, fishing and fur trading. This variety of industry compels variety in trade, which tends against monopoly and promotes competition.

There is a wider range of needs to supply, and therefore a wider range of effort and means in supplying them, than in any other city of the west, including even Winnipeg. No other western city has the like variety of trade to supply.

This is a land of magnificent distances. The cost and convenience of transportation is a most important factor in deciding business possibilities. Edmonton is on two transcontinental railway lines, and is reached by a third and competitive railway system. It is 40 miles nearer Winnipeg by rail than is Calgary. It has a direct and the shortest possible rail haul to and from both Vancouver and Prince Rupert on the Pacific. Therefore it has assurance of low rail rates and most prompt delivery of goods, which are important favorable factors under competitive selling conditions.

The cost of living enters into the cost of selling goods as well as of making them. Edmonton is surrounded by the most fertile mixed farming country on the continent. All food supplies are received at first, or at most, second, hand by consumer from producer without freight charges. These supplies include flour, beef, pork, poultry, eggs, butter, cream, milk and vegetables of all kinds. Coal is cheaper and in more assured supply in Edmonton than in any other city on the continent. Wood is abundant and available at the labor cost.

By reason of volume and variety of demand, efficient transportation service and lower living costs, Edmonton merchants are able to—and as a matter of fact actually do—offer a wider selection of goods at lower prices than any other city in the West.

The population of Alberta north of Red Deer is approximately 300,000. Of this number, say, 70,000 are in Edmonton. A quarter of a million people reside outside the city, but within the territory which for governmental, educational, judicial and business purposes centres here. One hundred and thirteen trains arrive and depart from Edmonton each week under the new schedules—an average of 16 trains a day each way. Out of the total 113 trains, each way, 103 bring passengers to Edmonton only. The other 10 are transcontinental trains. Railways radiate from Edmonton in all directions, and give the people served by them the most convenient means of reaching this city, the business centre of the northern part of the province, as well as the capital of the whole province.

What is true of Edmonton retail business is true of Edmonton hotels. There is a wider range of good hotel accommodation in Edmonton than in any other city of the West. The hotels may be crowded at Fair time or during conventions, but under ordinary circumstances the visitor is sure of ample accommodation and good service.

Edmonton is the shopping centre of Central and Northern Alberta.

Intending purchasers should come to Edmonton and see what they are getting before they buy.

Be sure it is what you want and the best you can get for your money before you take it. There is plenty of choice. You don't need to take something "just as good."

Whether your earnings are large or small, your profit depends on how well you buy.

Your railroad fare is a small matter compared with getting the needs of your household of the right kind, of right quality and at the right price.
